Snake Davis

2021
1st Edition

We couldn't have done it without you. The new YouTube sensation of Snake Davis is back on the road. Ok, well perhaps it's not quite like that, but how things have changed for all of us. Our first brochure in 18 months (normally we produce about 4 a year) with performances in venues with audiences.

A lot has happened in the last 18 months. We started back in March 2020 with livestream shows, free for all to watch. We've streamed over 150 shows and will continue to provide one a week, so if you're in the Outer Hebrides or Outer Mongolia and anywhere in between, so long as you have access to the internet you can watch an hour long Snake Davis performance from the comfort of your own space. You can watch live with friends at the other side of the world and even join the livestream chat if you choose. Our Zen Den chatters have made new and lasting friendships - something so very valuable in the days when we've all been so isolated.

The streams have been a real family affair for us here at the Zen Den. They simply could not have happened if it wasn't for the technical wizardry of Joe and there would have been no special "Fakey" appearances either. Joe has also helped other venues to stream too, keeping us all connected. Sally hides in the shadows keeping everyone informed and handling the nuts and bolts of everyday maintenance, making sure the foundations are always in place for performances to happen. Maker of shirts and "ideas girl".

As a thank you for Joe's hard work, we recently released our first ever digital single JDH!8. With a positive dancey, summer vibe, we hope you'll support us by downloading or streaming it and watching the video on YouTube (it's available from all normal outlets).

A HUGE Thank you for supporting us, especially over the last 18 months. Please keep spreading the word...

Snake, Joe & Sally

A note about all gigs.....

At the time of going to press, the regulations enable venues to open without any social distancing. However, many venues are operating some distancing measures. Please check with a venue before booking to confirm what their policy on distancing is.

Not really “Sold Out” A lot of venues sell tickets online and they may appear as sold out. Due to the sudden nature of people having to isolate, as a consequence there are frequently tickets available last minute. Please contact the venue directly for last minute tickets.

Ways to support Snake

If you can't (or would rather not yet) get along to watch a live performance, we'd love you to join us on the weekly livestream. They are currently streamed at 7pm on Sundays and include music, chat, the occasional Haiku and the Zen Denners on the side (that's the live chat should you wish to join in). Spreading the word really helps too - the more people that watch the show, subscribe to snakedavistv and give us a "thumbs up" the better. The dates and times change sometimes to accommodate being on the road but will always be updated at www.snakedavis.rocks and various social media sites.

There is a link on the website to click and watch or you can type www.youtube.com/user/snakedavistv/live into your web browser

They are free to watch. If you'd like to send a tip / donation, it's always very much appreciated. You can do that via Paypal using the link below or the QR code at the side (please contact us if you want to tip us but not using PayPal).
